USCCB Nationwide Action Alerts

Voter Voice: RACISM

Catholics interested in addressing the ills of racism are invited to read the pastoral letter "Open Wide Our Hearts:

The Enduring Call to Love" and the many resources available from the USCCB. Included is a study guide and prayers for further discussion in our parishes and with families and ministries. Please also review the available two page background readings at <https://www.usccb.org/systemic-racism> systematic racism, racism and economic inequality, racism and housing, racism and employment, racism and voting, and many others from the USCCB as a starting point for ensuring all people are recognized and treated as individuals made in the image and likeness of God.
