Happy Mothers Day: We would like to extend our love and appreciation to all the mothers attending Mass at St. Pius X this weekend. We also want to remember in our Masses and prayers this weekend all of our mothers, both living and deceased. Thank you, mothers, for saying “yes” to God’s special vocation to be good and faith-filled mothers.

Special Collection for the National Shrine: One of the premier basilicas in the United States is the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, DC. Upkeep and expenses for maintaining this beautiful Church have steadily increased and significant repairs are needed. This weekend there is a national collection to support the Shrine. Envelopes are on the back table of the Church. If you want to contribute, you can put your donation in one of the envelopes and put it in with the regular Sunday collection this weekend.

Congratulations, First Communicants:

This Sunday we celebrate First Holy Communion with two children in our Parish—Kailee Thurman and IngaWilkowske. Congratulations to the children and their families. A reception for the children will follow the 9:00 a.m. Mass.

Sacred Heart Mission Mass: The next

Sunday Mass in La Sal will be on June 4th at 2:00 p.m.

June Parish Picnic Canceled: The Parish Picnic originally scheduled for Sunday, June 4, has been cancelled. It will be rescheduled for later in the summer (late August or September) after Father Rowland, the new Parish Administrator, arrives. In place of the June Parish Picnic we are considering having a Parish Pancake Breakfast after a Sunday Mass in late June.

Food for the Poor Appeal: Next weekend Father Thomas W. Falkenthal will speak at all the Masses about the ministry of Food for the Poor. This ministry provides direct relief to the poor throughout Latin America and the Caribbean. Father Falkenthal will share his personal witness about the importance of Food for the Poor’s mission to care for the destitute as a means of living out the Gospel mandate to love one another.

Father Falkenthal was ordained a priest for the Archdiocese of Chicago in 1975. After serving parishes in Chicago, he entered the U.S. Navy as Commandeer of the Chaplain Corps. He served overseas and retired after 24 years of active duty before joining Food for the Poor. We welcome Father Falkenthal to the Parish.

(No special collection will be taken up but envelopes will be available for making a donation or sending your contribution directly to Food for the Poor.)
