Bringing of Gifts to the Altar

We need to bring back the procession of gifts that is the bringing of the wine, bread, and collection, and place them on the hand of a priest. Placing these gifts into the hands of the priest means an implicit request is made. Bread and wine are signs of our lives: transform our lives into your life O Lord and make them safe. It is all that we have.

Why is bread and wine put forward in in a procession

Before consecration, bread and wine is simple food and drink. Human beings make it. They are the fruits of the earth and work of human hands, so that people can stay alive. During consecration, they are transformed into the body and blood of Christ which we receive in holy communion, so that we will become part of Christ.

Money signifies people's lives. We work to earn a living and we offer this so that God will bless our lives. I call upon my parishioners to sign up on the sign-up sheet and be offerors.

Thank you and God bless!

Offerors

Oct. 21 – William and Jacklyn Shuster
Oct. 22 - Robert and Brenda Tupek
Oct. 28 - John and Melody Adams

Diocesan Development Drive

Have you given your gift to the Diocesan Development Drive (DDD) in response to Bishop Solis' appeal? St. Pius X relies on DDD gifts to aid us in ministries and services both spiritually and temporarily. We are benefactors with the priest at our parish. DDD funds are the resource to educate and train men to become priest to fill the vacancies in small communities. The QR code below will take you to an online opportunity to give. There are blank forms and envelopes in the back of the church that you can use as well. Just drop them in the collection basket. Thank you and may God Bless you. Call Marian with any questions 435-260-8028.
